User would be able to submit current location using the program.

Coordinator would be able to track the beach walks.

User would be able to report the species of marine mammal they encounter with the program.

Users would be able to submit photos using the program.

Coordinator would be able to see all locations on map where students have reported seeing Marine Mammals.